SUNDAY SERMON

There never has been, there is not now, and there never will be a simultaneous long term bull market in gold and a long term bull market in the D. J. I. A. and the S & P 500. This is the most simple and obvious market reality. It absolutely cannot be otherwise. Anyone who says or writes otherwise is stupid, ignorant or a liar. Liars for political purposes “abound aplenty.” Items such as Quantitative Easing will only slightly delay the inevitable. The market results of Quantitative Easing will be viciously removed. Quantitative Easing has elevated the stock averages to a level that will make the collapse far worse than it would have been if it never started. The end result will be a collapse beyond description!
For both gold and silver the price at every LTD # 4 high was higher than the price at the previous LTD # 4 high. Every LTD # 4 high was followed by a new bull market high. There is one question that remains unanswered and this is the question;

How High the Moon.
When the Money Flow Index (MFI) red line is trending down money is flowing into gold and silver. When the Money Flow Index (MFI) red line is trending up money is flowing out of gold and silver.
There are 10 simple rules to follow if people and nations want to prosper in every possible way. These rules have been in effect since the beginning of time. They became public knowledge several thousand years ago and they will remain in effect until;

The End of Time
The next report will be posted on Monday, April 10, 2017.
Updates will be posted when market action warrants.
